

On June 19, 2015, Governor David Ige signed Senate Bill 871 into law as Act 131 (Act). The purpose of this law is to authorize the Director of the Hawaii Department of Transportation (Director) “to grant reciprocal licensing privileges to holders of valid licenses from other jurisdictions not currently subject to a treaty for reciprocity, under certain conditions.”

The Act also directs that the Director to “publish on the department of transportation’s public internet site a list of countries for which reciprocal operating privileges have been extended and those that have been withdrawn.” For this information, please refer to the tables below.
